Top Picks

1. AI Engineer World's Fair 2026 (Relevance: 88)

The single best AI event for Postman to sponsor this year. The 6,000+ attendee base of AI engineers, founders, and engineering VPs directly maps to Postman's user profile — developers building with LLM APIs, testing agent workflows, and debugging MCP server integrations. A booth demo showing API testing for AI agent pipelines (prompt debugging, response validation, multi-step agent orchestration) would land perfectly. Expect strong PLG sign-ups from individual engineers plus SLG pipeline from VP/founder conversations.

2. AI Engineer NYC 2026 (Relevance: 82)

Same high-quality franchise on the East Coast, with a tighter audience. Gold sponsorship is almost sold out, so this needs immediate action. NYC draws a heavier enterprise/fintech crowd, making it slightly more SLG-weighted — good for enterprise pipeline alongside developer adoption. Demo angle: API collection testing for agentic workflows in regulated industries.

3. The AI Conference 2026 (Relevance: 76)

Broad five-track format covering the full AI stack from infrastructure to applied AI. The 5,500+ audience spans builders and buyers, and the agentic AI track is a natural home for Postman demos. Less niche than AI Engineer but higher total reach. Good for brand presence across the AI ecosystem with sponsorship packages still available.

Note: Events before May 28, 2026 (MCP Dev Summit NA, AI Agent Conference NYC, Interrupt by LangChain, NVIDIA GTC, Open Source Summit, AI Council) were excluded as they have already occurred.
